www.nobullyforme.org

A Canadian campaign based out of British Columbia to support and inform the targets of workplace bullying and to promote respectful workplaces.

The website offers information on bullying, the law, tips on finding the right counsellor, and links to crisis centres across Canada.

An excellent resource for those dealing with workplace bullying by people who have experienced it.

The MFL Occupational Health Centre (OHC) is a community health centre focused on promoting the health of Manitoba workers. We are a non-profit, charitable organization funded by the Winnipeg Regional Health Authority and by donations from individuals and unions. We are committed to working with all Manitobans who are interested in creating safer and healthier workplaces.

The OHC provides the following services to Manitobans:

- medical services to help you find out if your job is making you sick
- education and assistance to workplace health and safety committees to identify and resolve health and safety problems.
- special initiatives with immigrant and Aboriginal communities
- information and library services, Monday to Friday from 9 am to 5 pm
